RIGHTS OF WAY CAUSE DELAY IN HARBOR PLANS

Consideration of Plans and Specifications For New Wharf Unit Is Postponed
MATERIAL PRICES MAY SOAR
City Attorney Hall Will Endeavor To Reach Agreement With Dock Co.

The offer of the Ellis Landing and Dock company of the rights of way to the new wharf on the inner harbor at the foot of Tenth street at a price of $15,000, was last night laid over for one week by the city council pending the return of City Attorney D. J. Hall.

Due to the fact that the city has not yet secured the rights of way from the dock company, the council was last night forced to postpone consideration of the new plans and specifications for the proposed wharf unit.

Although Jackson Misner, city wharf manager, reported that the threatened increase in dock materials made immediate building of the wharf imperative if it be done at a minimum price, the council decided that nothing could be done until the rights of way question is settled.

Councilman Garrard expressed his belief that it will be necessary to institute condemnation proceedings against owners of the property required by the city, before the right of way can be secured.

Rev. Nunn's Son Killed in Texas In Auto Accident

Word was received here yesterday through the "Christian Advocate" a paper published by the Methodist church in California, that John N. Nunn, the only son of Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Nunn, was killed in an automobile accident at Falsurrias, Texas, on July 17.

Rev. Nunn was the pastor of the Community Methodist church from the time it started four years ago, until two years ago, when he moved to Los Gatos, where he is at the present time. A wide circle of true friends he made during his two years stay here, will sympathize with him at the passing of his only son.

John Nunn was killed while driving on the highway near his home city. He was blinded by the headlights of a car coming toward him, and he ran into a buggy just ahead. He was thrown from the machine and suffered a fracture of the skull, dying within an hour, without regaining consciousness.

Doyle stated that the improvement company has the assurance of the county board of supervisors that the county will maintain such streets.

Councilman E. J. Garrard, W. W. Scott and G. F. Black form a committee representing the city council in arranging for participation in the celebration.

Protest Is Made By Auto Dealers On Fly-By-Nights

Protest against out-of-town automobile dealers operating second-hand car sales establishments in Richmond without any fixed place of regular business was made the city council last night by the Richmond Automobile Dealers Association.

Through their attorneys, Pierce and Carlson, the local dealers urged that the city council adopt an ordinance putting a tax upon dealers operating here without agencies or fixed places of business.

The protest was referred to City Attorney D. J. Hall for one week.

Clarence Darrow and William Bryan, Under Flag of Truce, Pose Together at Scopes' Trial

To Carry Out Last Wish

By FRASER EDWARDS
Universal Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 27.—William Jennings Bryan, hero of a hundred bloodless battles in the cause of peace, will sleep beside America's warrior dead in Arlington National cemetery.

On the summit of a high knoll overlooking the tomb of the unknown soldier and the spires of Washington, the great commoner will be laid to rest with the last rites accorded a soldier fallen in battle.

This is in accordance with an oft-expressed wish of the dead crusader. His services as a colonel of volunteers in the war with Spain entitled him to the highest honors the nation can bestow upon her defenders.

"I want to rest in Arlington," Bryan told Ben G. Davis, his secretary, while heading the State department on a recent visit here. "No matter where I die, bury me there."

Davis, with War department officials, today selected the high knoll in the section of the cemetery named for Admiral George Dewey and near the spot where rests the remains of General Nelson A. Miles.

The time and details of the funeral await word from Mrs. Bryan, but in all probability it will be held on Thursday, following the arrival here of the body from Dayton. There have been no arrangements for the body to lie in state here.

Although Bryan will be borne to the cemetery on a grim artillery caisson, it is doubtful whether a full military funeral will be carried out because of the dead statesman's hatred of war and love of peace.

BODY TO LIE IN STATE
Thousands of Admirers Will Gaze On Their Chieftain For Last Time Tomorrow

By EARL L. SHAUB
DAYTON, (Cen.), July 27.—In death, as in life, William Jennings Bryan is still the great commoner.

His body rested today, just as that of any citizen of the hill country would in the little vine-clad cottage of Richard Rogers, where he has resided since coming to Dayton.

The people of this village and the surrounding hills came to pay their respects to a dead friend and neighbor.

Autoists Use 190 Million Gal Gas In 3 Months

SACRAMENTO, July 27.—California motorists and other users of motor fuel consumed approximately 190,000,000 gallons of gasoline every three months, according to figures made public today by the State board of equalization.

Those figures showed that the six leading oil companies of the State distributed 160,822,753 gallons of gasoline during the quarter just ended. And 30,000,000 gallons from other sources were also distributed.

The board of equalization gave the following distribution by gallons for the quarter as follows: Standard Oil Company, 57,610,119; Shell Oil Company, 31,587,597; Union Oil Company, 23,287,513; Associated Oil Company, 23,305,351; Rielfield Oil Company, 19,821,235; General Petroleum Company, 6,219,614.

City Officials Of Petaluma To Inspect Streets

Three Petaluma councilmen were visitors in Richmond yesterday and last night for the purpose of gathering data for a proposed program of street construction in their municipality.

The visiting councilmen, C. B. Jensen, O. C. Glahn and C. M. Rierretts, were conducted on a tour of the city yesterday afternoon by City Manager J. W. McVittie and City Engineer E. A. Hoffman. In the evening they attended the weekly meeting of the Richmond city council, where they expressed appreciation of their opportunity to make a thorough inspection of the local street system.

Richmond May Have Float in Parade of Dons

Extending an invitation to the City of Richmond to enter a float in the Dons of Petaluma parade on August 27 in Oakland, Harry G. Williams, Oakland assessor, last night appeared before the city council and outlined plans for the big fiesta.

The council instructed City Manager McVittie to investigate the matter during the next week.

OTHER STREETS TO PETITION FOR ELECTROLIERS

City Manager McVittie Will Make Council Complete Report Next Monday Night
EARLY ACTION IS NECESSARY
Councilman Black In Favor of Installing New System On Tenth Street

The petition of Tenth street business firms asking the city to install an electrolier lighting system on Tenth street, between Macdonald and Nevin avenues, was laid over for one week by the council last night pending further investigation by City Manager J. W. McVittie.

McVittie reported that no complete investigation of the proposed work had as yet been made inasmuch as property owners on Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth streets, between Macdonald and Nevin avenues, are expected to petition also for an electrolier system.

Upon recommendation by Councilman George Black, who declared that early action must be taken by the council because of the fact that the buildings on Tenth street are rapidly nearing completion and street work is expected to be commenced at an early date, it was decided to have the city manager complete his investigation by next Monday night.

The new business buildings on Tenth street represent a community investment, it was declared by Councilman Black, adding that as such the council would be justified in installing the electrolier system.

DEATH REVEALS DOUBLE LIFE OF DR. J. R. PHELAN

Minneapolis Physician Leaps From Fifth Story Window Of Hotel
WAS FACING PROSECUTION
Police Discovered He Operated in One Portion of City as "Dr. Stevens"

(By Universal Service)
MINNEAPOLIS, July 27.—Leaping from the fifth story of this city's most fashionable hotel, Dr. J. R. Phelan ended his life here this afternoon, thus thwarting prosecution on a charge of manslaughter brought against him following the death of a woman patient.

The death of Dr. Phelan ends the almost incredible story of a Jekyll-Hyde existence.

Known in the exclusive University district as Dr. Phelan, a philanthropically inclined physician and surgeon of great skill who gave his service gratis to thousands of poor patients during the past 25 years, and whose practice was among the oldest and wealthiest residents of the city, it was discovered last week that for years he had been practicing in another section of the city as Dr. W. T. Stevens, whose specialty was criminal operations.

The dual existence feature came out following the death of a woman who had been directed to "Dr. Stevens" by a helioph at a hotel. Arrested as Dr. Stevens and given the third degree, he broke down when a detective recognized him as the highly respectable Dr. Phelan. He was released on bond and was to have been arraigned this week on a charge of manslaughter. Today he leaped from the fifth story window of the fashionable hotel where for several years he had been a social light, and was killed when he struck the roof of the bath room, four stories below.

Students Elope To Martinez and Are Married

MARTINEZ, July 28.—A promise to delay their wedding for a year until the bridegroom had completed his college course was broken here Saturday when John Cathart, 22, 1841 Vine street, Berkeley, and Miss Margaret Farrar, 19, 1473 Grove street, Berkeley, were married at the Congregational church by Rev. W. H. Hannaford. The announcement of their marriage proved a surprise to their parents and relatives. The engagement had been announced but the young couple agreed to delay their marriage a year until Cathart completed a dentistry course at the University of California. The bride graduated this year from the Berkeley high school.

OIL, THE INDOMITABLE INDUSTRY

In spite of periodical investigations and burdensome and unfair taxes which it must pay, the oil industry continues to grow.

During the last three months, April, May and June, there were 100 new oil companies incorporated under the laws of the various states, having a total capitalization of some $75,000,000.

Gasoline output in May broke all records with 922,000,000 gallons, $61,000,000 gallons more than the previous high record of April.

Consumption of gasoline during May increased 24 per cent over same month of 1924.

Production of gas and fuel oils in May was 1,275,000,000 gallons, a daily average of 41,100,000 gallons, more record figures.

Producing, refining and marketing petroleum and its products in the United States requires the services of 760,000 employees. This means that more than 3,500,000 persons are dependent upon oil for a livelihood.

MODERN IN TAXATION BRINGS RETURNS

It is a recognized fact that moderate surtaxes would be more productive of revenue than the present schedules. Productive business is discouraged by exorbitant surtaxes and capital is driven into tax-exempt bonds.

There was a time when the small taxpayer did not understand that the general prosperity of the country was diminished by imposition of these excessive surtaxes, and welcomed a stiff levy on incomes in the higher brackets. The average citizen is now better informed and knows that general business conditions are not improved by driving productive business into tax-exempt securities.

When capital is kept out of productive enterprise by excessive taxation, this unnatural diversion yields no revenue to the government and is costly to industry. A man is not interested in risking his money and energy in an enterprise where, if he wins, the government takes a great part of the profits in taxes, and if he loses he stands the whole of the loss. Initiative and new ventures are penalized by such a policy.

THE LAND OF PROSPERITY

The National Industrial Conference Board, Inc., finds that the American wage earner is the best paid worker on earth. On a chart showing what labor will buy of all the comforts of life, the wage scale of Philadelphia was taken as 100 per cent. On this basis wages in foreign cities and countries are as follows:

Philadelphia, 100; Sydney, Australia, 70; Ottawa, Canada, 69; London, 45; Copenhagen, Denmark, 41; Oslo (Christiania), Norway, 38; Amsterdam, Holland, 37; Stockholm, Sweden, 36; Paris, France, 33; Berlin, Germany, 29; Prague, Czechoslovakia, 29; Brussels, Belgium, 28; Lodz, Poland, 27; Rome, Italy, 23; Vienna, Austria, 23; Warsaw, Poland, 23; Milan, Italy, 21.

The New York Times asserts editorially that the metropolis is an "intellectual summer resort." This doubtless means that New York is a good place to go when you want to give your intellect a vacation.

An insurance expert declares that most of the homes being erected now are very poorly built. But it doesn't make much difference as nobody says in 'em anyhow.

Congressman Burton has introduced a resolution in the Geneva conference making the use of position gas illegal in warfare. Why not extend the restriction to parliamentary bodies?

The Austrian republic has officially thanked us for aid rendered it in time of distress. Thanks seems to be about all we are going to get from Europe, and very little of that.

Pleated Black Satin Is Cleverly Used to Produce New Flaring Effect on Smart Dinner Frock.

NEVER since satin was invented has it gone completely out of style. Some one always wears a satin frock and in every wardrobe there is always something made of satin. But sometimes there seems to be a satin season, just as there are taffeta seasons and crepe seasons. Just at present all sign posts point toward a satin season. With the coming of late summer you will see more and more satin and by the time autumn has come it will be firmly established as one of the smartest materials, whether for entire frocks, for trimming purposes, for wraps or for hats.

So if you are looking for a bit of good advice, and want some one to help you select a new frock you are planning for late summer and autumn wear—let me urge you to select satin. Materials it would seem always wait upon the trend of fashion. They are determined by the silhouette; and the outline that women are going to strive to attain next autumn is going to lend itself very well to satin. The shapely flares that will appear in almost every frock seem to demand something with a little more body than crepe. Not new but still smart is the effect gained by using crepe

WISE AND OTHERWISE

THAT MEAL IN BED

TO some persons the idea of breakfast in bed is anything but pleasant; to others it spells luxurious leisure, and a slight indisposition becomes almost worth while because it means breakfast in bed. To some housewives the thought of serving breakfast in bed to any member of the household seems very burdensome, to others it is hardly more of the table. Sometimes china specially for bedroom use is sold in sets, but as they are seldom what is known as "open stock" the breaking of one piece means that the set is spoiled. A better plan is to buy the pieces you want from some attractive "open stock" so that when a piece is broken it can be replaced. However, don't get the same pattern that you use for regular dining-room or breakfast-room service. Meals served in bed are more tempting if the china is different from the sort seen at every other meal.

If you have time make two or three little covers to fit the top of your bed table. These may be of plain white linen with an attractive run-stitch hem to match the color of the table and the china. Special napkins for use on the bed table might be kept on hand if you like.

trouble than serving an extra person at table. Much of the way you feel about eating a breakfast in bed as well as much of the way you feel about serving a breakfast in bed depends on your equipment for the bed breakfast.

A bed table makes the task comparatively simple. This, you know, is like a trap with a rim around three sides and four little legs which makes it possible for the person in bed to have the table resting on the bed without touching the knees. The bed table should be conveniently placed in the pantry where the dishes and silver needed should be placed on it when the table is being set for the other members of the family and where the food can be placed on it just before it is taken up. Everything for the meal can thus be carried up at once. These tables usually come in white enamel but some shops sell them in interesting colors. One bed table recently seen was a deep mauve color with black and white checkered rim. You might work out your own color scheme and paint a plain bed table yourself.

A good plan is to have special china for your bed table, which should be in harmony with the color

THE LIMITED MAIL

CHAPTER I

Out of a blustery night that was steeped in the fabled Stygian blackness, a small boulder—dislodged by the persistent rain—slipped from Old Witch's Mask, on the heights of Granite Gorge, and hurtled down toward two unsuspecting vagrants at the lee base of a train trestle pier. The thin halo of their fire, fluttering bravely against the impounding blackness, revealed the younger tramp coaxingly feeding twigs to the blaze over which he held, to keep off the windblown spurts of rain, a rusted wash boiler top that had found its way into this remote hobo nest in the mountains Heaven alone knows how; it showed, too—before its rays were lost impotently in the black void of the abyss, upon the edge of which he was kneeling—the fat and frowsy figure of the older tramp, paying out a line of cord.

A trickle of pebbles, and a sudden ominous overtone to the weird medley of wind and rain that thrashed down upon the snarling whirlpools in the bottom of the canyon, warned the man at the fire. But his instinctive yell to his friend was too late. The unwarned hobo, just rising to his feet and carefully commencing to draw in his string, was still in a half-bent forward position when the rock bounced like a petrifried rubber ball on the ledge behind him, then jumped over him as though in playful leapfrog, barely grazing the broadest and fullest part of his frayed pants. Such, however, was the force of this planing blow that the tramp was knocked flat on his face toward the brink of the chasm, over which he now slid, helplessly, his hands clutching futile-ly at the empty air, his feet in their toothless shoes pressing vainly on the smooth ledge for a braking hold that would stay his bulky body. His frightened shriek rose like a wail above the tempestuous symphony of primitive elements in the Gorge. The lithe young hobo, dropping the boiler cover, made a leap and a grab, but for the second time in as many instants he was too late. His pal disappeared over the cliff. Outwardly numb, inwardly quaking, the young fellow crawled to the edge and peered over. He saw what he had been afraid to hope for—his comrade entangled in a stout bush a bare three feet below.

There was a precision and trained skill in the physical strength of the husky young tramp that spoke of better fed and rested days, not far behind as he dragged his fat friend to safety, guiding him to help himself by taking footholds in the glacially vermiculated face of the precipice. Gasping, when safe at last, the older man seized his friend's hands in sentimental gusto, and with a great wagging of his greasy head and wrinkling of his round face—which, in the dying light of the neglected fire, was unmistakably colored a boudoir green—he cried, "My dear boy, I am eternally indebted to you. The cold fingers of the Grim Reaper were in my hair. But—drowning is not for Potts! It was not Potts' time!"

The young man jerked his head toward the invisible heights. "Are there apt to be any more of those?" Potts reflected, until the harsh effort left his breathing, then with the emotional vagabond's philosophic acceptance of things as they come, he decided: "No, I don't think so. I'll tell you about the Old Witch later. Meanwhile—on with the stew, let our hunger be unrefined!"

With a gesture of dismay he called for—and here is another can." "When you dip for the water this time I am going to sit on your legs," said the younger man laconically; then, reaching into the darkness just beyond the firelight he lifted into view a five gallon ex-home of motor oil and added, "I rustled this up a while ago!"

Potts inspected the large can critically. "Oxygen and hydrogen, au naturel, have banished the odor and the taint," he approved. "One usually finds a generous selection of cans—err—utensils!—in this locality, which is a favored one with our brotherhood. You may have observed the calling cards," he mentioned politely, with a graceful sweep of his fat hand toward a large boulder just within the aura of firelight. It was covered with a strange and bewildering confusion of signs, numbers, letters and symbols—the "cards" of all the more famous knights of the road, and some not so famous.

"Are you going to add yours when we leave here?" Potts fished. The boy—he was twenty-five, perhaps—looked soberly at Potts with eyes that had their roots in pain; then he twisted one corner of his mouth down in a wry, indefinite smile that got no further than his lips. Potts, in the week he had tramped with the lad, had come to know this shy, haunting little hint of a mystery and a fight against secret trouble which did not want to be prodded. He felt quickly ashamed of his inquisitiveness. After all, was it not enough that he liked the boy and that the boy seemed to like him; that they had gravitated toward each other in one of those strange and outwardly ill-mated friendships of the dusty roads, where no references are required? He changed the subject.

WHERE IT STARTED

The word "ribbon" comes from "ribband," and the old word meant literally what it says—a band for binding the ribs—a sash. Material came to be made in special widths for sash purposes, and soon all narrow material was called "ribband," gradually corrupted to "ribbon."

ST. PETER, (Minn.) July 27.—Because a cow died after stepping on a rusty nail dropped from the underside of a truck under construction on a highway intersecting his pasture, Anton Rubie, a Lafayette township farmer, appeared before the board of commissioners of St. Peter county and asked damages for the loss of the animal. HOW AN ALIEN MET HIS TWO RELATIVES

NEW YORK, July 26.—When Max Sonner arrived in America from his native Hungary he decided he wouldn't bother with immigration regulations, so he dropped over the side of the liner and started the long swim to the water front.

He arrived safely, climbed the side of the wharf and started to don his clothes, which he had carried in a bundle on his head, when two thugs appeared. They relieved Max of all earthly wealth, about $150.

The bandits were just making a getaway when three dock policemen hove in sight. They arrested the thugs—and Max. At the station Max recognized the robbers as two cousins of his who had preceded him from Hungary a year ago. The three will be deported.

DOG SAVES $800 BY ROUTING OUT THIEVES

CLARKSBURG, (W. Va.) July 27.—The vigilance and intelligence of a faithful watch dog saved $800 in cash for G. L. Bartlett, merchant and farmer at West Milford. Burglars broke into his home at night and plundered the place, taking among other things, the currency which they found in a pocketbook.

As they were leaving the house the dog apparently sensed the situation, raised an alarm with his barking and attacked the burglars. Bartlett and other members of the household promptly appeared with guns and the burglars, frightened dropped the most of their loot and fled.

Included in the articles they dropped was the pocketbook containing the $800. All they got was a few automobile accessories.

They were making a landing at the town dock. The boat, valued at $6,000 was destroyed. The Gillespies were rescued by persons in the vicinity. The jewels had been deposited by Mrs. Gillespie in her pocketbook before she left home. She placed it in the boat beside her and when the boat caught fire she failed to remove it.

323,049 people —Are you one of them?

If you are a patron of Key System—a buyer of our service,—we should like to hear from you, individually, at this time.

All together, you are a good sized army. Our daily average of passengers carried shows nearly a third of a million of you, divided as follows:

Average Number of Passengers Carried per Day—
Traction Division (Eastbay)	269,115
Key Division (Eastbay and Ferries)	48,441
Motor Buses (Eastbay)	5,493
Entire System	323,049

Two-thirds of you use our traction lines, while the other third, holding positions across the bay, are able to enjoy the residential advantages of Eastbay cities through our ferry service. Without that service many thousands now spending their money in the Eastbay cities would be living elsewhere.

You are the people who have the first right to say what kind of Transportation Service should be furnished. Do you need more cars on your line? More buses or bus lines? What changes or improvements do you believe can wisely be made in our present service for its greater comfort and use? Do the cars and buses run too fast? Too slow? Are our employees as courteous and efficient as we believe them to be?

Think it over. You almost surely have definite views on this service and what it ought to be. We want to know them. We do not hear nearly enough from you, our patrons, although we have previously invited suggestions.

Write them to us. Your letter, addressed to our Department of Public Relations, will receive our careful consideration, and will be greatly appreciated. Our business is to furnish the kind of Transportation Service our patrons want to have.

Last Showing at California Of "Slave of Fashion"

"A Slave of Fashion" which opened at the California theatre yesterday, presents a human story exceedingly well told and beautifully produced. It is entertaining from start to finish and iskeyed at a tempo that holds your interest all through. It is a Hobart Henley production released and sponsored by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Samuel Shipman wrote the story originally for the screen. He shows the same fine skill in mapping out screen plays that he does in his spoken drama.

The story is that of a very beautiful and unsophisticated girl who has lived in a middle western village all of her life, but has longed to go to the city primarily to be able to see and wear—clothes. She gets her wish but almost at the cost of her good name and the wrecking of her home. However, the family honor and happiness are saved; and the girl wins a confirmed wealthy bachelor to boot.

Norma Shearer is starring as the girl, Katherine Emerson. She is a remarkable actress as well as being an unusually attractive and beautiful girl and gives a brilliant performance in this newest role.

Lew Cody is featured as Nicholas Wentworth and makes an ideal romantic lover. As usual he gives a strong performance for there is no mopeable player on the screen than Mr. Cody.

Mary Carr, William Haines, Vivian Ogden, Miss Dupont and James Corrigan all give splendid performances.

Bess Meredith wrote the continuity and Ben Reynolds did the photography.

Other screen entertainment on the same program includes "Air Tight," a Bobby Vernon comedy; "Mother Goose Land," an Inkwell cartoon; "Topics of the Day."

Following the lead recently set by the Key System Transit company, the Southern Pacific company, yesterday filed a petition with the railroad commission, asking for an investigation of the ferry and electric service with a view of increasing their rates from San Francisco to the Eastbay cities.

In asking for the investigation, the company declared it is operating at a loss at the present time. The argument in the application is similar to that in the application of the Key System.

Richmond is already preparing to fight, and the Key System application, through City Attorney D. J. Hall and it will probably join the other cities in the region in a similar action against the southern Pacific.

"Cytherea" Heads The Program at The Richmond

A wife should not make a husband's life a game of hide-and-seek. That is the moral to be found in "Cytherea," Goddess of Love, a First National picture which is enjoying a successful engagement at the Richmond theatre. It was produced and personally directed by George Fitzmaurice for Samuel Goldwyn.

Adapted from Joseph Herge's novel, it is directed by a stellar cast that includes Lewis Stone, Alma Rubens, Norman Kerry, Irene Rich, Constance Bennett and Betty Bouton.

Miss Rich enacts the role of the young wife who descends all romance when she says "yes" at the altar, and became immersed in her domestic duties. Her husband, played by Lewis Stone, despite the encroaching years, still was susceptible to the influence of love and romance, and could not understand his wife's unsympathetic and prosaic attitude.

Then a doll came into his life, a dainty little French doll whose features resembled those he had dreamed of. The doll represented his ideal of THE woman, and he called it "Cytherea," the name of the Ionian Goddess of Love.

One day he met the living image of the doll, and then began for him a series of startling adventures such as he had never conjured in his dreams or thoughts of love.

Other screen entertainment on the program includes "Aggravatin' Mama," a Gumps comedy; "Frozen Heart," a screen novelty.

Junior High Has Promising Football Team

COACHES HAVE GOOD MATERIAL TO WORK WITH

Plans Are Being Outlined As Opening Of Season Nears

GAMES ALREADY SCHEDULED

Most of Last Year's Team Again Ready to Go Into Action

With the opening of the new school year, and also the fall football season, the middle of August, Doc W. Leewright, physical director, and coach of the Roosevelt Junior High school, is making preparations and plans for the work of his grid men in the fall.

George Miner, Doc's helper in all lines of athletic endeavor at the school will have returned from the east by the time school opens, and the two of them will put their heads together and prepare to turn out one of the strongest bunch of pigskin grabbers ever seen at the Junior High school.

A powerful line of action is being worked out. Although a number of his best players graduated from the school last June the main personnel will again be seen in action, and Doc has a lot to work on. He has a crew of men, who performed both on the first team and the scrub eleven last year, and they all know his system to a "T".

Seawright and Miner are banking a great deal on their line. They have not divulged the probable occupants of the positions in the line as yet, but declares that they have the material to throw up a stone wall against all opposition in their class.

The back field will be exceptionally strong and fast. One of the brainiest quarterbacks ever turned out by the school will be prepared to take up that position. The halves and full are pretty heavy, but at the same time they have plenty of speed. Nevertheless, most of the weight will come in the line.

A number of new and complicated plays have been worked out. They will go with a set of signals, that will be of terrific embarrassment to the opposition, and at the same time comparatively simple to those in the know.

Several games have already been scheduled, tentatively. There is Martinez, Vallejo, and all the schools of the Junior High class in Berkeley and Oakland.

Taking the team and the conditions all in all, the Junior High school outfit has a promising season in the football line.

RAGS WANTED—Record-Herald

Schoell Will Alter Methods Against Shade

When Jimmy Slattery, erstwhile sensation of the pugilistic games fought Dave Shade, former Richmond school boy in New York last month, he was completely at sea due to Dave's style of milling. Although the Buffalo youngster had been warned about Dave's peculiar style, he made no effort to perfect an offense or defense against it, and as a result, he was left after the first going.

Frankie Schoell, Slattery's townsman, who boxes Shade at Recreation Park here on Saturday evening, August 1, says he will profit by Slattery's ill experience.

For the past week Schoell has been working like a Trojan trying to perfect a new punch so that he will be able to offset Shade's peculiar bobbing tactics.

"I know Dave's style pretty well," stated Schoell yesterday, "but I feel with the addition of this new punch I will be so much more dangerous against Leo Flynn's entry. It is a half jab and hook, and carries more force than any other punch I use with my left hand."

"Shade's unorthodox style of bobbing and weaving will bother any man he meets, but I have been in the right with him three times, and I believe I know how to gauge him now."

"In our first bout at Buffalo, Dave, acting like the champion of the world, carried the fight to me for a couple of rounds. That was my plan to let him come to me. Then as I backed into the ropes he pursued me, and sidestepping, I caught him with a right hand on the chin that all but knocked him down and taught him to respect me."

"In the two fights I had with Shade since he has not forgotten that one sock that almost put the lights out on him, and for this reason as much as that I want to give the fans of this city a real fight, I will chance my style of milling against Shade."

With Tommy Simpson calling his card off at the Oakland Auditorium tomorrow night, it will allow one of the boys—Teddy Seidman—on the big card more chance to be in perfect shape for his tilt with Rufe Canton, sensational Filipino bantamweight. Canton boxes "California" Joe Lynch in a ten-round bout tonight at California Hall.

Richmond Keys Victors Over Oakland All-Stars

At last the Richmond Keys have won a ball game.

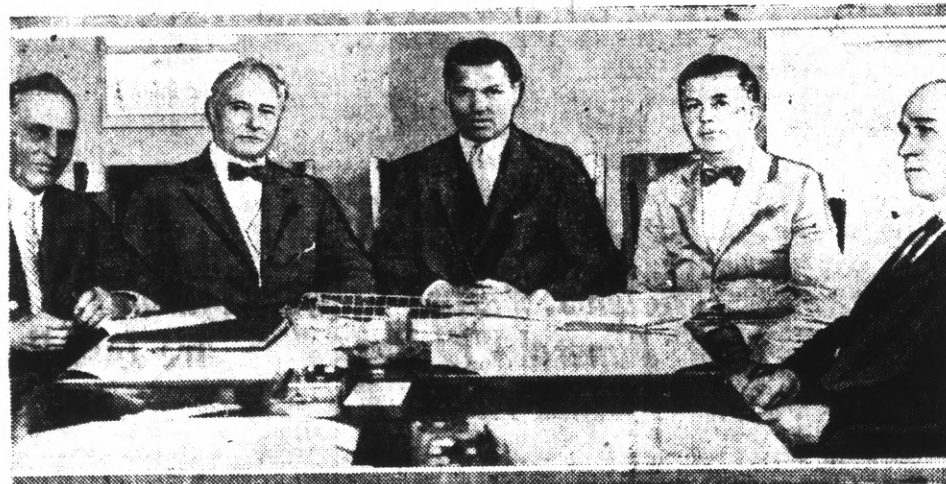

It was a nip and tuck affair, the entire length, but Tex Brown's cohorts managed to slip out over the Oakland All-Stars on Sunday in Oakland by a 7 to 6 score. The carmen played good ball all the way, and took advantage of all breaks that came their way.

Tex unlimbered a new and startling pitcher in this game. This gentleman is called Frank Nemeth and is reported to be a whizz. He allowed only one hit, but as error after error was made the opposition got their runs.

A feature of the game was a circus catch made by the honorable manager, Mr. Brown. He spiked a hard drive just as pretty as you please off the tops of the grass. Hoagland, who roamed in center pasture also did some good work as he robbed the Oakland boys out of some almost sure hits. Davis, first baseman, also did some fine work.

Casey Defeated In Record Upset On Tennis Court

SEABRIGHT, (No J.), July 27.—In one of the biggest upsets of the season, Ray Casey of San Francisco, who recently took part in the Wimbledon championships, was eliminated today in the first round of the annual Seabright tournament. Casey went down in straight sets before Arnold W. Jones, former junior star, 6-3, 6-2. Almost equally surprising was the intense nature of the match between Gerald Patterson, noted Australian, and Herbert L. Bowman, of New York, the Anzac being crowded all the way to win by 6-3, 1-6, 6-3. Bowman showed a surprising superiority in the second set.

The matches brought fourth the greatest field of the season to date, with Little Bill Johnston on his way from Chicago to take his place in the tournament tomorrow.

Vincent Richards, Olympic champion, found an easy victim in Fritz Mercer of Lehigh. The latter was polished off 6-3, 6-3. Richards playing well within himself at all times. Equally hollow was the triumph of J. B. Hawkes, another of the Australian invaders. He disposed of Eddie Garbison, all-American football man at West Point, by 6-1, 6-1, and his fellow Anzac, Jim Anderson, also scored in straight sets, defeating Percy L. Kynaston of New York, 6-4, 6-1.

Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, former tennis champion, won her opening match against Mrs. Frank H. Godfrey of Brookline today, but she had quite a task doing it. She was caught unprepared in the Seabright lawn tennis' invitation tournament by Mrs. Godfrey, who got away to a lead. But Mrs. Mallory settled down and took the match, 6-4, 6-0.

Miss Helen Wills, national champion, defeated Mrs. Stuart Symington of the Home Club, 6-1, 6-0. Miss Mary K. Browne disposed of Mrs. G. F. Lawrence of Seabright, 6-1, 6-1. Miss Martha Bayard eliminated Miss Marion Simmons, also of Seabright, 6-1, 6-1.

Miss Louise Iselin defeated Mrs. Harold Vantine, 6-1, 6-1. Other vic-

Silver Fox And American Flag May Be Matched

CINCINNATI, July 27.—Twenty-five thousand dollars will be offered by the Coney Island Jockey Club for a match race or sweepstakes between Silver Fox and American Flag to decide the three-year-old racing championship of America, Martin Nathanson, secretary of the club, announced late today. Although Silver Fox has been twice defeated by American Flag this season the "Grey Ghost" as the winner of the Cincinnati Derby is called, has shown such marked improvement that many horsemen believe he is the equal of the great son of Man o'War.
Nathanson said that more money would be offered if necessary and that every effort would be made to have the race held before the present Coney Island meeting closed in September. A slight lameness developed by American Flag prevented his owner, Samuel Riddle, from sending him here for entry in the Derby last Saturday.

UNCLE WIGGILY'S TRICKS

Siki Victim of Knife When He Stopped Fight

NEW YORK, July 27.—Battling Siki the Senegalese pugilist who knocked out Georges Carpentier in 1922, was found on the sidewalk early this morning unconscious from the loss of blood from a deep knife wound on the left side of the face, received when he interfered in a street brawl in "Hell's Kitchen."

At the French hospital it was said that Siki's condition was serious but that he would recover if infection could be prevented.
After regaining consciousness, the pugilist said he had interfered with the intention of acting as peace-maker, when he saw two men fighting at the corner of Forty-first street and Ninth avenue, as he was going home. Both men attacked him. He knocked one down but the other stabbed him with the knife as he turned to fight him off.

Joseph Hanahan, 25, who was arrested near the scene, was held in $10,000 bail on a charge of felonious assault.

NEW YORK, July 27.—Battling Senegalese, conqueror of Georges Carpentier, took French leave of the French hospital in a rage today, wearing pajamas and dragging an astounded newspaper man by the arm. Siki had been taken to the hospital in a serious condition with a stab wound in his neck, received in a fray in the heart of Hell's Kitchen.

PERALTA FETE WILL BE GREAT ATHLETIC MEET

OAKLAND, July 27.—One of the greatest amateur athletic carnivals on the Coast is announced as one of the features of the Dona's Peralta Festival to be staged during the three days period starting August 27. The event has been sanctioned by the Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union and negotiations have been started with the Multnomah Athletic Club of Portland, the Los Angeles Athletic club the San Francisco Olympic club and other organizations for the entry of their prize athletes.

One of the spectacular events will be a race around Lake Merritt. A necklace of electric lights around the lake will be dedicated on August 28, and President Coolidge will press a button which will switch on the electric current. Immediately following the illumination a three mile race will start.

Unusual events on the athletic program include an archery tournament open to both men and women, a fly casting tournament, a club passing tournament and a DeMolay drill competition.

The regular athletic events include a 240 yard relay race for high schools, a 240 relay race for girls, a 50 yard race for girls, a 50 yard race for men, running high jump, and boxing and wrestling matches. Entries close on Friday August 21, and are open to all registered amateurs.

Lakeport Blanked By Richmond Club

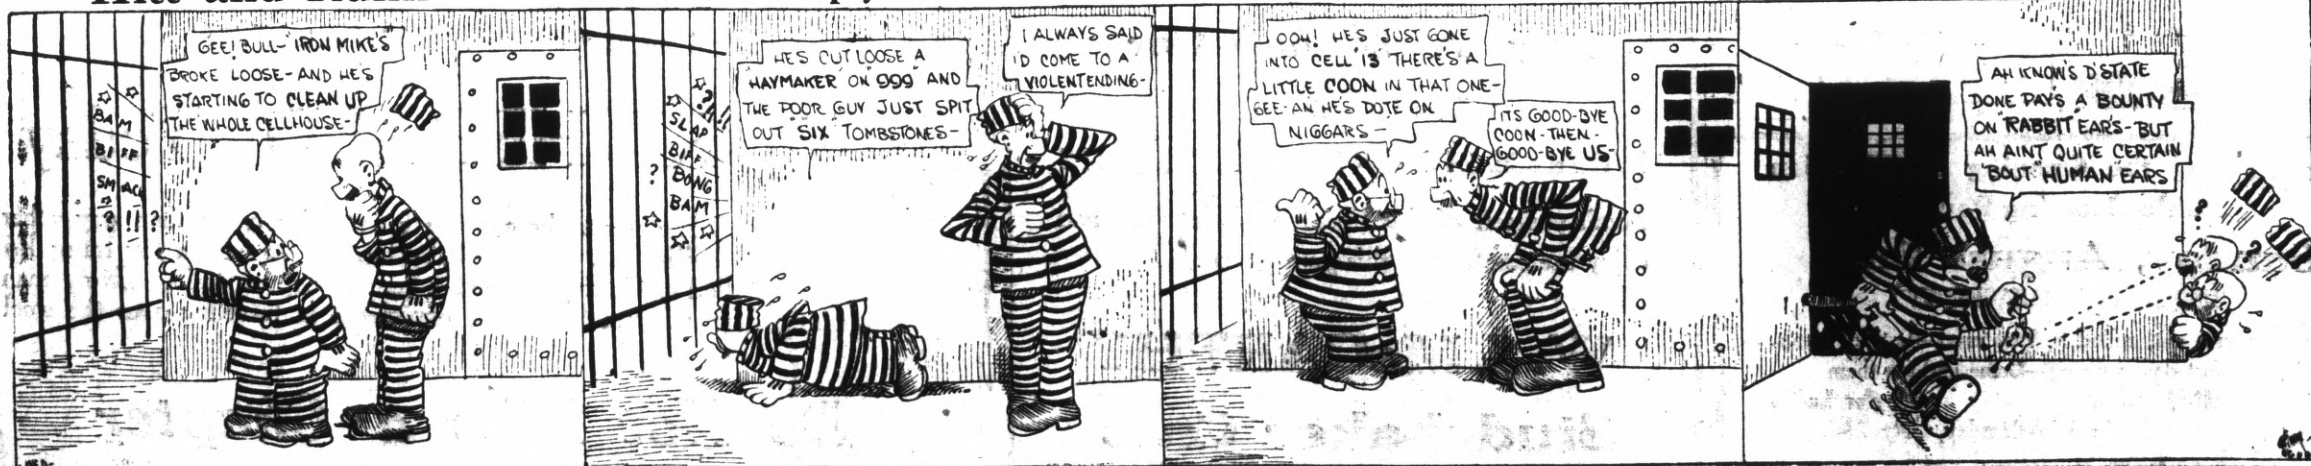

Elmer Hansen's Richmond ball club had an easy time walloping the Lakeport club 7 to 0 at Lakeport Sunday. Lefty Buttisbach let the Lakeport outfit hit only three times, while the homeguards walloped 14 safe ones. Van Arsdale caught for the locals.

The heavy stick men for the Richmond club were Huzefka with four hits, O'Rourke with three hits and Kersten with a double. Features in the field were Huzefka in the outer garden and Anderson at the key-stone.

TUBERCULOSIS OVERCOME

Oakland, Calif. April 28, 1925. For about three years I suffered from a bad cough and sore chest. I tried many doctors, all of whom pronounced my case Tuberculosis. My spittle was examined and showed tubercular germs. As I found no improvement from any of the treatments that I took, I decided to give the PONG WAN HERB a test. As a last resort, after having drunk the herbs for four months, I was a well woman and had gained in weight. A year has elapsed since I began to take the PONG WAN HERB on April 16, 1924, but today, I am still well and have no sign of my former complaints.

are developed in connecting the two avenues.

The city has long had consideration of the proposed development. It was stated by Mayor W. W. Scott, but the fact that the property owners of Contra Costa county would have to bear the greater portion of the expense of the work had delayed any action being taken to date.

As pointed out by City Manager James A. McVittie, planning experts had made investigations into the proposed opening of a road between the two thoroughfares, but found that the majority of the property owners that would be affected by the work live in this county. The Annex property owners would bear very little expense, it was said.

The Panhandle road runs from San Pablo avenue through the Richmond Annex to the Pay estate, an expansive section of marsh land that would require filling in before the new road could be constructed. The matter was referred by the council to the street committee and the city manager for one week.

Graduate Today

A. Page Harlow, of 509 Florida avenue, will graduate from the "A. Zed" preparatory school in Berkeley today. Harlow has completed the work outlined by the school in preparation to entering the Y. M. C. A. college in Chicago, where he will study to be a boy's work secretary in that organization.

Page Harlow started the work two years ago as the leader of the Nivari, members of the St. Edmund's Episcopal church, and has made such a success of this work, that he and his many friends believe he is best fitted for that line.

He is the son of the late E. H. Harlow, who was one of the members of the first board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. of Richmond. Page will report for Chicago about September 1, with the well wishes of hosts of friends made during his years in Richmond.

ANNUAL REPORT OF FIRE CHIEF
ON YEAR'S LOSS

Annual statistics compiled by Fire Chief W. P. Cooper, show that the per capita fire loss of Richmond for the fiscal year ending June 30 was held to the extremely low figure of 58.8 cents. The per capita loss for the previous year was $1.27. This was shown in the report filed with the city council last night.

During the past year, a total of $95,386.79 was lost on buildings and contents of buildings, and the owners were reimbursed by the insurance companies to the extent of $12,045.23. The valuation of the property were lost occurred was $189,900 with insurance of $117,150, the report shows.

Twenty-eight of the 144 alarms responded to by the fire department, caused property loss, while 116 were extinguished without damage.

The greatest damage occurred on January 2, Chief Cooper said, when a building owned by A. Simoni, on Standard avenue, was gutted. He said that no doubt the blaze was incendiary origin.

According to the report, Hoseman William H. Pines lost his life while fighting fire. The accident occurred when he fell through the skylight of the Certain-teed Products plant on July 5, 1924.

The system of fire prevention and inspections are the cause of the decrease in loss here, Chief Cooper declares. The inspector covered the residential district once during the past year, while the business district was covered three times.

Despondent Woman
Jumps Into Lake

OAKLAND, July 27.—Strollers on the shores of Lake Merritt this afternoon were startled by the screams of a well dressed woman, wearing many diamonds, who had swallowed a small quantity of carbolic acid in an attempted suicide. She fainted as the liquid burned her throat.

She was taken to the Oakland Emergency hospital, where she stated she was the wife of James McCloud, a business man, residing at 1423 Fourth avenue, Oakland, and had determined to die after returning from a vacation.

She said that family conditions were such that she could no longer bear to live, and she fought with nurses and physicians at the hospital begging them to allow her to die.

When seen at the Fourth avenue address, McCloud's mother, said that she had not learned of Mrs. McCloud's return from Los Angeles, where she had been for several weeks. McCloud, who lives with his mother, could not be found late this evening.

Mrs. McCloud had been treated for a nervous disorder recently, it was learned.

MULE LANDS IN DITCH
FALLS ON WORKMANS BACK

LOUISVILLE, July 27.—A mule jumped upon William Campbell, 25 years old, while he was at work in a sewer excavation at Twenty-fourth and Walnut streets. An ambulance took Campbell to his home after he had been given first aid by Dr. Moore. The physician said Campbell had a broken rib, injuries to his head and possible internal injuries.

The mule drawing a scraper, was driven by another employee who said the mule lunged into the excavation landing upon Campbell, when the latter reached up and struck him.

Slash Areas To Be Cleaned Up

SACRAMENTO, July 27.—State Forester M. B. Pratt, today announced plans for the elimination this fall of all serious slash areas in the forests of California, where lumbering operations are in progress.

No funds to carry out the work of the state department of forestry to enforce the cleaning up of slash material in the timber country have been available until this year, although the law has been on the statute books since 1905. Hereafter, $10,000 will be available to clear up the slash in the state, Pratt was assured by the State Board of Control.

The State forester said, while declaring that slash burning must be delayed until the present period of forest fire menace is concluded, that:

Our rangers are spotting the serious slash areas at the present time and after the first rains this fall we intend to put a force into the field which will clear up the most hazardous districts. While I have never contended that $10,000 a year is sufficient to clear up all the slash in California, I am confident that the worst areas can be eliminated. Until July 1 of this year we had never been allowed a cent with which to do this work.

Activities of a slash disposal character are now being carried on in the forests by three special inspectors enforcing the regulations prescribed for logging equipment. These inspectors are requiring all lumber companies to maintain proper equipment for fire prevention around their camp engines and to clear away the slash for 100 feet on all sides of such machinery.

Through a codicil, the old homestead at Oak Ridge, which had been in the family since colonial times, comprising buildings and 160 acres, will go to Wilfred Chamberlain, the son of Horace Chamberlain, a cousin.

BOY DISCOVERS THAT FATHER IS SUICIDE

NEW YORK, July 28.—For eight hours William Hennings, Jr., 9 years old, slept in a bed at his home beside the body of his father, who had committed suicide by drinking a disinfectant just before he retired according to police. The boy awakened, tried to rouse his father and, failing, summoned neighbors.

THREE KILLED,
ONE INJURED IN TRAIN CRASH

MARTINEZ, July 28. Three persons were killed and one seriously injured Sunday night at 8:29 o'clock when the automobiles in which they were returning to their homes in Pittsburg were struck by Southern Pacific passenger train No. 51 at the Bay Point crossing. One was killed outright, one died en route to the hospital in Martinez and the third succumbed about 2 o'clock this morning.

The dead:

Mrs. Katherine Demetropoulos, aged 23 years, died en route to hospital.

Constantine Allen, aged 25, jitney driver of Bay Point, instantly killed.

driver of Bay Point, instantly killed.

Vasilios Demetropoulos, aged 3 years, died at hospital Monday morning.

The injured:

Peter Demetropoulos, husband of dead woman, will recover.

For some reason, which will never be known, for the driver of the car was instantly killed, the occupants of the car did not see the approaching S. P. fast passenger train which completely demolished the car and threw the occupants hundreds of feet to the side of the tracks. Allen's head was severed from his body. Mrs. Demetropoulos was terribly crushed and did not recover consciousness and in addition to having both legs broken the child was injured internally. Peter Demetropoulos was badly bruised and received many superficial cuts. At the Martinez hospital he was reported this afternoon to be improving and the attending physician announced that he would recover.

100 RELATIVES WILL GET $500,000 ESTATE

POMPTON LAKES (N. J.), July 27.—The $500,000 estate of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Chamberlain, who died June 8 at her home in Oak Ridge, near here, will be divided among one hundred relatives by the terms of her will, filed for probate at the Morris County courthouse in Morris town.

Except for a few bequests, the estate was left to twenty-one first cousins, Miss Chamberlain's nearest relatives. But since 1911, when the will was made, many of these cousins have died, so the estate will go their children, numbering close to a hundred.

Through a codicil, the old homestead at Oak Ridge, which had been in the family since colonial times, comprising buildings and 160 acres, will go to Wilfred Chamberlain, the son of Horace Chamberlain, a cousin.

bor, as they now consider him, and to offer what consolation they can to his widow.

Efforts to have the body lie in state in the courthouse, where he fought his last spectacular fight for the convictions that were closest to heart, were opposed by Mrs. Bryan. But Mrs. Bryan was finally prevailed upon to allow her husband's remains to lie in state in the shade of the maples on the Rogers' lawn. Arrangements were made toward that end but it was later decided to do this Tuesday afternoon, so that more people could be notified.

According to the great commoner's bier will rest on the greensward tomorrow between 2 and 5 o'clock when thousands of his admirers will file by and gaze for the last time on their friend and chieftain.

A guard of four soldiers and two sailors in uniform will stand beside the coffin. There will be no ceremony here, and arrangements for his burial in Arlington Cemetery Friday will not be completed until the family gathers in Washington Thursday morning.

All business was suspended here today in honor of Bryan. In obedience to a proclamation of Mayor Haggard, not a business house was open. Signs on the doors of stores read: "Closed for the day out of respect for Col. W. J. Bryan."

Even the postoffice was closed for an hour.
